

Performance Policy for Students

General Notes:

- Performance opportunities are offered to students in Levels 2 and 3.
- Performance is entirely voluntary.
- If you volunteer for a performance, you agree to the necessary practice and preparation.
- Also, if you volunteer for a performance, you agree to obtain the appropriate costuming.
- Nisaa reserves the right to make the final decision regarding your eligibility to participate in performances that Nisaa organizes and/or sponsors.

Group Performances:

- In order to volunteer for a group performance, you must be currently enrolled in Nisaa's group classes.
- If you volunteer for a group performance, you will be expected to attend class regularly and attend required rehearsals. If you must miss a class, you will be expected to make up the class (for example, by staying after class, by attending class at a different time or location, or by attending a private lesson). If you must miss a required rehearsal, you must notify Nisaa as soon as possible.
- Two or more absences from class without make-ups will affect your eligibility to participate in group performances.
- Absence from required rehearsals will affect your eligibility to participate in group performances.
- If you volunteer for a group performance in the spring recital, you will be required to register for the recital preparation class in addition to your regular weekly class. The same class attendance requirements apply to the recital preparation class.

Solo/Self-Directed Performances:

- In order to volunteer for a solo/self-directed performance as part of a performance that Nisaa organizes and/or sponsors, you must be currently enrolled in Nisaa's group classes or regularly attending private lessons with Nisaa.
- You are encouraged to seek out Nisaa's guidance while developing your performance.
- If you volunteer for a solo/self-directed performance as part of a performance that Nisaa organizes and/or sponsors, your performance will be subject to Nisaa's final approval.
